SAGE Seminar Advice for First-Years

So you're a first-year student at Russell Sage College. Congratulations! Going to college can be a challenge sometimes. Here are some suggestions to help you survive your first semester:

1. Room-mates: It can be hard to get used to living in a dorm room with someone you've never met before. It can be helpful to talk about your favorite _____Noun - Plural_____, _____Noun - Plural_____, and _____Noun - Plural_____ to get to know your new room-mate better.

2. Professors: Don't call your professors "Mr." and "Mrs." like you did your teachers in high school. To show respect, refer to your professors as Dr. _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ or Professor _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____

3. Email: Always check your Sage email, since this is the way your professors will contact you. They won't respond to your personal email accounts, especially if you have a crazy email account like _____Adverb_____ _____Animal (plural)_____ @hotmail.com or _____Number_____ _____Part of Body_____ @gmail.com

4. Finances: It can be easy to spend all of your money on _____Noun_____ in your first few weeks. Be sure to budget so that you'll have enough for _____Color_____ _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ and _____Noun - Plural_____ when you need it!

5. Time Management: If you spend your day watching Netflix your grades will reflect it. Be sure to schedule time for _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ and _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ so that your calendar is balanced and includes enough time for _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____.

6. Eating Right: Avoid the "freshman 15" by eating lots of _____Noun - Plural_____ and _____Noun - Plural_____ at the dining hall. Those fries might look good but eating more _____Noun - Plural_____ instead will fuel your brain for studying.

7. Clubs: Joining clubs is a great way to meet people with similar interests on campus. Russell Sage has some really fun ones, like the _____Noun_____ club and the _____Verb - Base Form_____ club. But if the club you want doesn't exist, start your own! Just last semester a student started a _____Verb - Base Form_____ club.

8. Exercise: Need a way to relieve stress? Visit the fitness center on campus. It's got the latest exercise equipment, like the _____Noun_____ climber and a stationary _____Noun_____. You can even take _____Verb - Base Form_____ classes!

9. Stay Healthy: If you think you're getting sick, check out the Wellness Center. You can get your _____Part of Body_____ looked at, or get medicine for your _____Part of Body_____

College Traditions: One of the best things about Russell Sage are the long-standing college traditions. Be sure to come to Banner Night when the first-years are presented with their _____Noun - Plural_____. Rally is also a lot of fun -- everyone wears their _____Item of Clothing_____ and sings songs about _____Noun - Plural_____. Don't miss it!

With this advice your first year at college is sure to be a success! Good luck, and don't forget to _____Verb - Base Form_____!
