Church Day!

1. Year _____

Church Day!

I was on my way to church walking along the sidewalk when suddenly I see a person on the street light, as it turned green, I decided to walk towards her. I decide to witness to her with my bible on hand. I told her all about Jesus. She had never felt such peace as she had done that day. I invited her to church that day and we had a very special service. I felt like I had done something amazing. I rushed home after service and . I can't wait 'till again next _____Year_____.
