Our day at the zoo

Yesterday, my family and I took a trip to the zoo. The entire car ride there, my brother would shout, Are we there yet? My dad would just laugh and say, A few more minutes! To pass the time, I took out my deck of cards and _____Verb - Past Tense_____ go-fish with my brothers. I ended up beating them every round. When we finally arrived at the zoo, we _____Adverb_____ parked the car and ran out towards the ticket booth. Go get tickets for a full day, my dad told me as he handed me some _____Noun_____. I grabbed my brothers hands and _____Verb - Past Tense_____ towards the ticket booth. When I got the tickets, we ran back to our parents and our day began.

First, we stopped at the lion habitat. There were males, females, and small cubs all sleeping together in the cage. As soon as we got close to the cage, Milo, the _____Adjective_____ male, awoke from his deep slumber under a tree. He _____Verb - Past Tense_____ and roared as he stood up. It was so cool! We werent allowed to get that close to them but we did get some pretty _____Adjective_____ pictures of them. My brothers wanted to see the monkeys next, so we walked over to where the monkeys were being held. They were all very loud with their _____Verb - Present (-ing)_____, but they were so cool to see. My dad called them fascinating and my mom was even allowed to pet one ! We saw a bunch of other cool animals like birds, bears, rhinos, hippos, and I even got to hold a _____Noun_____! My brother eventually started _____Verb - Present (-ing)_____ for food, so I ended up buying everyone cotton candy. Our experience was so much fun. At the end of the day, my mom said she became a child again. When my dad told us we could go back again soon, my brothers and I _____Verb - Past Tense_____, Yay!
