More stories at WordBlanks.com

Honeymoon plans

1. Adverb _____
2. Noun _____
3. Adjective _____
4. Verb Base Form _____
5. Noun Plural _____
6. Noun Plural _____
7. Noun _____
8. Verb Base Form _____
9. Verb Base Form _____
10. Verb Base Form _____
11. Adjective _____
12. Noun Plural _____
13. Shower Guest _____
14. Adjective _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Adjective _____
17. Noun _____
18. Noun _____
19. Verb Past Tense _____
20. Adjective _____

Honeymoon plans

Anna and Greg were planning their honeymoon. They had been (Adverb) looking forward this trip and planned to make it as (Noun) as possible. Three weeks was still such a (Adjective) time to (Verb Base Form)! Greg wanted to visit the (Noun Plural), but Anna preferred to tour the (Noun Plural.) Finally they both agreed on the (Noun). While there they hoped to (Verb Base Form) and (Verb Base Form) if the weather was nice.

As their wedding day approached Anna began to (Verb Base Form) her bags. She made sure to include all the (Adjective) (Noun Plural) her friends had given her. She hoped Greg would like them, although she still wasn't sure about that one thing (shower guest) had given her. It was a little too (Adjective) for her taste.

Finally the day came. They exchanged vows under a (Adjective) sky and then celebrated with their (Adjective) guests until it was time to leave. Then everyone pelted them with (Noun) as they ran to the car. As they pulled onto the highway Anna exclaimed "I forgot my (Noun!)" Greg said he'd buy her one the next day. Once they reached their destination, Greg (Verb Past Tense) Anna over the threshold into their room. As it happened, the weather was (Adjective) the entire week, but Anna and Greg barely noticed.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.