Our Journey

Every year, my family goes on this _____Adjective_____ camping trip to the _____Adjective_____ Rocky Mountains. This year was extra _____Adjective_____ because I just turned _____Number_____ so I was _____Verb - Past Participle_____ to go white-water rafting! I always _____Verb - Past Tense_____ my sisters do it every year and I was _____Adjective_____ that I could do it with them. I know the rapids moved _____Adverb_____ and if you _____Verb - Past Tense_____ into the water, you were in for a _____Noun_____ dip. Even during the summer the water was under 40 degrees Ferenheit! Just thinking about _____Verb - Present Tense_____ into the water _____Verb - Past Tense_____ chills up my back. My dad was too _____Adjective_____ to get a guide so we were in this _____Noun_____ alone. The first 4 minutes was the most _____Adjective_____ part of the whole thing! We were _____Verb - Past Participle_____ along the whole time and we were _____Verb - Present Tense_____ in _____Adjective_____ circles. I couldn't make up my mind if I was _____Verb - Past Participle_____ or _____Verb - Past Participle_____ because I couldn't hold in my laughter and _____Adjective_____ screams. We finally calmed down but our journey wasn't over yet. We still had another _____Adjective_____ hour to go! The _____Adjective_____ water splashed up onto me and my goosebumps were the size of _____Noun - Plural_____! After about 30 minutes we got to stop at a _____Adjective_____ spot and they allowed you to jump into the water. Jump into that _____Noun_____ water? No way! After a while we moved along and then came the _____Adjective_____ finale! When you look at pictures, the drop didn't feel that _____Adjective_____, but it felt like we were 30 feet high! My screams were so _____Adjective_____ that I'm pretty sure I caused some people to lose their hearing. I have never experienced something so _____Adjective_____ and I couldn't wait to do it again!
