Dear Dad

Dear _____Proper Noun_____,

When mom came up with the idea to do these letters, we all obviously decided to do something _____Adjective_____ and _____Adjective_____ with them. I hope that you _____Verb_____ filling in my Mad Lib and that you return it to me when you come home so I can _____Verb_____ what you _____Adverb_____ to fill in. :)

I hope that everything is going _____Adjective_____ for you in D.C. While I am _____Verb_____ this letter, I'm not at school, but by the time you read this, I will be. Hopefully by this point in the semester I am _____Adverb_____ my classes, and slowly getting used to having an 8 am class. (Although I highly doubt that)

I hope that while you are gone you will _____Verb_____ lots of pictures and become a D.C. expert so if _____Noun_____ get the chance to come and visit you, _____Noun_____ can be a successful tour guide. Keep enjoying yourself and get out and _____Adverb_____ all the cool things you can while you are there. I miss you, and I can't wait to _____Verb_____ you soon!!

Love,

_____Proper Noun_____
