More stories at WordBlanks.com

Heather & Josh

1. Adjective _____

Heather & Josh

Heather & Josh have known each other since they were in _____Adjective_____ grade. When they first met Josh was afraid of Heather. Eventually, they starting hanging out with the same group of friends. In their sophomore English class, Josh started flirting with Heather and his idea of flirting was winking at her. Later that year, they started dating when Josh asked Heather out on his birthday. And Heather swears Josh first said "I love you" after just four days! During high school, they created many memories including going to eight school dances together. After high school, Heather left home to attend Bradley University while Josh attended Olivet Nazarene University. After a semester at college, Heather came home to attend Olivet with Josh because she could not stand to be that far from him. Their relationship grew during their college years. After Heather had waited 5 1/2 years, Josh asked Heather to be his wife at the Blue Sky Winery. They are getting married June 14th and then they will live happily ever after!

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.