Lydia & Tyler

Lydia and I first met in the _____Noun_____ of 2008 at Camp Glisson when I was _____Verb - Present Tense_____ my freshman year of college and she was going into her junior year. We became friends, but did not really _____Verb_____ to know each other that _____Adverb_____. I saw her only a few times in between then and summer of 2010 when we both _____Verb - Past Tense_____ at Glisson again. From the moment she arrived we _____Verb - Past Tense_____ closer and so one night I sent her a _____Noun_____ goodnight. Little did I know, that at some point she had _____Verb - Past Participle_____ that she would never need my _____Noun_____ again so she _____Verb - Past Tense_____ it from her phone. So after asking around she _____Verb - Past Tense_____ that it was me that had _____Verb - Past Participle_____ her and we _____Verb - Past Tense_____ to grow closer and it wasn't long before we were _____Verb - Present Tense_____. I'm so excited to be _____Verb - Present Tense_____ Lydia for many reasons. One reason in particular is to start a family with her. She loves being around little _____Noun - Plural_____, especially if they are _____Verb - Past Participle_____ up like food. However, that doesn't mean I want us to have _____Noun - Plural_____ right away. First we could probably get a _____Noun_____ and we'll just treat it like a child. The ideal day with Lydia would start off with a nice _____Adjective_____ morning _____Noun_____ at IHOP. After filling our stomachs with tasty _____Noun - Plural_____, we would then set off on an _____Noun_____ somewhere that we had never been before. We'd have a _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ and _____Noun_____ and _____Noun_____ in the warm sun. After a long day of _____Verb - Present Tense_____ we'd return home to _____Verb_____ and _____Verb_____ up. Then we would finish off the day with a _____Proper Noun_____ _____Noun_____, followed by hanging out with _____Proper Noun_____ _____Proper Noun_____.
