The Story of Elissa and Zach...Rewritten

Not too long ago, Elissa went out with some friends to _____Verb - Base Form_____ trivia. While _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ every question correctly she was introduced to a young man named Zach. She enjoyed _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ with Zach throughout the evening and began to look forward to _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ him again. Elissa and Zach hung out a few more times and realized that there was a connection between them worth _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____. Soon enough they were _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ pretty seriously.

It wasn't long after that when they both realized they wanted to tie the knot. After much debate and _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____, Zach _____Verb - Past Tense_____ a _____Adjective_____ ring. He was a little _____Adjective_____ about giving Elissa the ring, but had a _____Adjective_____ afternoon _____Verb - Past Tense_____. He took her to the nature preserve where they had plans for having the wedding. He set up a camera to get some lovely shots of Elissa. Thinking he forgot to put the self timer on, Elissa pointed to let him know it wasn't set up correctly. When she turned around he had pulled out a ring. He was a perfect gentleman and asked her to marry him. Of course she said yes and was delighted in her pretty ring. She was even more delighted to find that Zach hadn't forgotten about the camera. He had caught the whole proposal on film.

A few more months went by and Zach and Elissa planned a lovely fall time wedding. Two bridal showers and a bachelorette party later, and the wedding was coming right up. The stress of planning the perfect day was wearing on them, but they knew it would be all worth it in the end as they became husband and wife.

The wedding day came and went and was everything they hoped and more. They went on a short honeymoon to relax and unwind. Overall, Elissa and Zach would both call the wedding a success. Best of all, they were married now and could live....
