More stories at WordBlanks.com

story

1. Noun _____
2. Verb - 3Rd Person Singular Present _____
3. Adverb _____
4. To _____
5. Noun - Plural _____
6. Coordinating Conjunction _____

story

Each _____Noun_____ the conductor points or gestures to a particular section, the performers will make emotional noises (try to avoid words -- make sounds that conveys the feelings). When the conductor _____Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present_____ his hands high, the volume of the performers increase. Hands low, the volume decreases.

Just as a maestro performs during an impassioned symphony, the conductor of the emotion orchestra warms the _____Adverb_____ up, pointing to them one at a time at first, and _____to_____ to more sections at once, eventually building to a climactic frenzy.

Performers must make certain that they pay attention to the conductor and become silent as soon as the _____Noun - Plural_____ points to another group.

Overall, "Emotional Orchestra" is a quick, fun way to warm up the _____Coordinating conjunction_____ and get the cast primed for more challenging activities.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.