The Princess and the Lamb

Once upon a time there was a _____Adjective_____. This princess liked to go hunting. One day, this princess went hunting in the _____Adjective - Ends in EST_____ and came across a _____Noun_____. The _____Noun_____ was very scared. The princess did not want to hurt the _____Noun_____. She made sure the _____Noun_____ was ok before she left it. As she was moving on, the _____Noun_____ disappeared with a loud snap. The princess was very scared now. She wanted to know what the loud noise was. It couldn't be from the _____Noun_____. She followed the sound and came across a big _____Noun_____. The _____Noun_____ was about to eat the _____Noun_____. The _____Noun_____ would not allow it. She took out an arrow from her quiver and shot at the minotaur. The first arrow missed, but the second did not. The arrow struck the minotaur's hand and he yelped in pain as he dropped the lamb. The princess raced forward and grabbed the lamb and ran away as fast as she could. She soon came across a meadow where she placed the lamb on the ground. She reassured the lamb and they continued home together. No longer will the princess hunt alone.
