More stories at WordBlanks.com

Marceline and The Mysterious Forest

1. Noun _____

Marceline and The Mysterious Forest

One day little Marceline decided to leave the house and explore the forest. She packed some food, water, and her favorite toy Hambo. She was ready to go. She crossed the field to the edge of the forest. _____Noun_____ started her adventure in the deep mysterious forest. She was told many stories about the forest and how it was never ending. She wanted to see for herself but she was scared so she held Hambo close as she walked past the entrance into the dark trees. Marceline walked and walked as she listen to the sound of birds and squirrels dance around above her in the trees. She thought maybe the forest did have and end and we just thought it was different because no explored it. Marceline was tired and forgot the way she came and didn't know if she could get out of the forest. She ate her snacks and drank some water. Not soon after a bunny came along and sat by her. She looked at the small rabbit and decided she would make it out of the mysterious forest. Marceline ran she didn't want to be stuck she ran fast. She could see the exit she rasced to the exit and jumped out. Now she was home and she was safe.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.