Ask your students to write themselves a letter, reviewing the year and making "resolutions" for the next school year. Give them some prompts to write about: one thing they are proud of from this year, one thing they would like to do differently next year, one thing they want to remember, and so on. You can either mail these letters to your _____Noun - Plural_____ just before the start _____Preposition_____ the next school year, or make arrangements with their next teachers to distribute the letters at _____Article_____ start of school.
