Sleeping Over at School!

I was so bored. My class was in the middle of a math lesson. My _____Adjective_____ teacher, Mr. _____Male - In the room_____, remembered _____Adverb_____ that we had a short day today! I was so happy, that I grabbed my _____Noun_____ and threw it in the air! I brought my friend, _____Male Kid - In the room_____, to go out and do something with me. "Pack your _____Noun - Plural_____, because we are staying the night!" I said. He nodded _____Adverb_____, and we both hid in the _____Adjective_____ garden. "What should we do?" I asked. _____Same Male Kid - In the room_____ decided we were going to go to the playground to stay over. At the playground, there are very _____Adjective_____ structures. We still needed to find a _____Adjective_____ place to stay. I used a/an _____Noun_____ as a pillow, and a/an _____Noun_____ as a blanket. If only we weren't caught by the _____Adjective_____ janitor, Mr. _____Male - In the room_____. I took my alarm clock with me to tell the time. I hoped it didn't make a _____Adjective_____ noise when it went off. I totally forgot about my mom! She was probably so _____Adjective_____ that I was gone. I poked my friend on his _____Part of Body_____, and he got up looking _____Adjective_____. "We need to go back home!" I exclaimed, _____Adverb_____. We grabbed our stuff, and I found a _____Noun_____ on the ground, so I got to bring that _____Adjective_____ souvenir back from my trip. We walked down the _____Adjective_____ halls, and I looked at the clock. It was 4:57! We ran down the halls, being careful that all of our stuff was nice and _____Adjective_____. We finally got home, and I went straight to my _____Adjective_____ bed. It was a _____Adjective_____ night.
