Dear Grandma

Dear Adjective Grandma, How are you? I am The weather here in has been, we are seeing a lot of on the ground this year. It's a perfect time to go verb ending in ING I really miss your visits, I loved seeing you in last fall, you looked so Adjective wearing your new lipstick, reminds me of my Family member - mother Having lunch and then going verb ending in ING was so much fun, you are really good at it. I miss your Adjective touch and your warm, you just make me really when we're together. You smell like Plural food all the time! I know you're still that Grandpa Verb - Past Tense, I miss him too, but you're so and such a and such a woman! Lets go visit his grave at Random place next time and lay some Noun - Plural beside him. He would like that. I will write you again soon, stay Adjective and Adjective . I'm Adverb thinking of you.
Love your one and only P.S:[Thank you for teaching me how to!]
