First Day in Mrs. Weiss' Classroom

Today was the first day of school. I was a little _____Adjective_____ because I'd heard some _____Adjective_____ rumors about our new 7th grade English teacher.

Don't get me wrong - some kids thought that Mrs. Weiss was _____Adjective_____, but there were many who thought she was the _____Superlative Adjective_____ teacher they'd ever met.

Some kids who had her as a substitute last year told us how she would _____Verb_____ _____Noun - Plural_____ to the front of the classroom and _____Verb_____ _____Noun - Plural_____ to get the class's attention. When a student got out of line you could count on Mrs. Weiss to _____Verb_____, then _____Verb_____ _____Noun - Plural_____. But most of the time, Mrs. Weiss was very _____Adjective_____.

So you see, many of us were a little _____Adjective_____ when we first entered the comfortable classroom.

The room was decorated with _____Adjective_____ _____Noun - Plural_____ and _____Adjective_____ _____Noun - Plural_____. The desks were arranged in a _____Geometric Shape_____. There was even a _____Noun_____ hanging from the ceiling. But what I noticed first was what the _____Adjective_____ teacher was wearing. I don't know about the other kids, but I have never seen a teacher wearing pants that shade of _____Color_____. The outfit looked like something off of _____Movie or TV Show_____!

Some of us weren't sure whether to _____Verb_____ or _____Verb_____, but we were _____Adjective_____ and she didn't seem to notice our suppressed _____Noun - Feeling_____.

Whatever they say, one thing is for certain: this is going to be an _____Adjective_____ year in Mrs. Weiss' class!
