Advice for the Parents

Having a baby is no walk in the, and every new parent could use some advice from their! Here are a few things to remember:
1. Every time the baby Noun so he-she will be very Adjective.
2. During the long, Adjective hours of the night, be sure to verb - Base Form a noun and then go to
3. Finally, when you're at your end because the Adjective is everywhere and the won't stop, just remember, it's all worth it in the end when you hold your baby in your body part-plural and see his-her precious facial feature.
