That hath over blue _____body of water_____ strayed in hope to find

In our thin foliage here a summer home

Fain would they catch the bright things in their mind,

And cage them into sonnets as they come.

No; they should serve their wants most sparingly

Till the ripe time of _____a song title_____, when young thoughts fail,

Then their sad sonnets, like old bards, might be

Merry as youth, and yet grey-haired and hale.

In our thin foliage here a _____place of choice_____ home

Fain would they _____Verb - Base Form_____ the bright things in their mind,

And cage them into sonnets as they come.

Till
