It All Started with a Phonecall

One week back in 2015 a bunch of Jewish educators each received a _____ Adjective phonecall from one Lesley Litman. There was a excited voice on the other end of the line exclaiming "Do I have a _____ Noun for you!" She went on to explain in detail all about the HUC EMA programme for Jewish _____ Noun - Plural. We would be studying online together as a group and meet in beautiful locales such as Cincinnati, Los Angeles New York and _____ Proper Noun! We would also have the opportunity to travel to the land of Israel. She forgot to mention in her phone call that we would all need working _____ Noun - Plural, and the ability to notice, wonder and appreciate continually for the next two years. It sounded like a _____ Adjective opportunity to learn and grow in our fields and so we signed up for the _____ Number week introductory course with Rabbi Joseph and Dr. Levine. It was so _____ Adjective that many of us went on to apply to the program. In order to be accepted we were _____ Verb - Past Participle, we needed to find our old _____ Noun - Plural, invite 3 willing people to write us a letter of recommendation and finally we crafted an _____ Adjective essay. We each received an acceptance letter and an invitation to attend orientation in Cincinnati. The next thing we knew, we were all back together in New York for our first intensive seminar! We studied texts in _____ Language, and learned about Modern Jewish _____ Noun - Plural. We learned to study in Chevruta and our soon to be Cohort 5 motto: "I don't give a Rat's Ass" was born. Our dorms were _____ Adjective, the food in NYC was _____ Adjective and we had many chances to bond as a group over wine and _____ Noun - Plural. Online courses kept us connected and our clinical faculty mentors acted as cheerleaders, therapists and _____ Noun - Plural between our seminars in Los Angeles and New York. Before we knew it, we were in Israel together for 12 _____ Noun - Plural days, studying, touring and laughing for the entire time. Here we are, together one more time, our capstone, essays and deliberations are all behind us and we are ready to celebrate our educational journey together.
