Values: GROWTH
For people and organizations, there can be no status quo. If we aren't verb Present ends in ING ourselves and Gymfinity, we are sliding?
TRUST
Trust can be built regardless of another person's feelings or actions toward us. We often think is built by gestures at crucial moments in our lives, but trust is typically built with simplicity an small actions. Like Noun Plural filling a jar. Each action fills the jar.
TEAMWORK
We can $\underline{\text{Verb Base Form}}$ far more together than we can apart. $1+1=3$ Working together can help us further our better and faster.
COMMUNICATION
It's critical for us to move forward with open and effective communications. If you have a and keep it to yourself, it's your problem. However, if you it, we can work together to find a solution
ENTHUSIASM
Show a passion for everything you do! Enthusiasm attracts people to you and makes Proper Noun a fun place for staff, students and parents. Keep in mind that the kids you teach often look forward ALL WEEK to the class

Pronoun are teaching. Bring it for them EVERY Adjective TIME!
RESPECT
Respect for the, their parents, each other and the business must be unconditional. This includes also, self This can be done by always presenting yourself in a professional manner in every situation. Additionally, how we talk to each other (and about each other) about co-workers or parents solves no problems and shows disrespect. Use "" and "teamwork" to problem solve.
