Me and You

June 20th, 2015. The day that has been in the making for 6 years. We found the _____Noun_____ of our dreams, had a _____Noun_____ that would get anyone's taste buds _____Adjective_____, and our dcor was _____Adjective_____!

As I _____Verb - Base Form_____ in the Bridal Suite with my girlfriends, mom, and aunt my _____Noun_____ were steady as can be. I could not wrap my head around the fact that the day of my _____Noun_____ was upon us. Everything had _____Verb - Base Form_____ into place and every last detail was perfect, except one.

The weather had turned and a _____Noun_____ was rolling in- not ideal for our _____Adjective_____ outdoor ceremony. But you would never have known by looking at me. I was _____Adjective_____, and the weather was going to do whatever it wanted, but was not going to ruin my day. I had in my head that no matter what, I was _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ down that aisle.

And I did. I _____Verb - Past Tense_____ down the aisle with my dad holding an umbrella, past all of our _____Noun_____ holding guests to my groom. The ceremony began and the rain poured! Thunder rolled and our guests got _____Adjective_____! Holding _____Noun_____ with my groom, I looked out and laughed.

Our wedding day, despite the _____Noun_____, was incredible! The perfect launch into the new stage of our life.

Now we are husband and wife and our life together is a lot like our wedding, perfectly imperfect.
