Coffee Shop

After my _____Number_____ hour shift at work, I decided to get a drink and small snack at the nearby coffee shop. It was only a _____Number_____ minute walk away from my office, so I grabbed my _____Noun_____ and headed out the door. The journey was quite _____Adjective_____, although it was getting dark and _____Adjective_____ outside. I _____Verb - Past Tense_____ past _____Noun - Plural_____ _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____, _____Group of People_____ _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____, and a few stray _____Animal (plural)_____, and I finally arrived at the cozy shop.

I accidentally _____Verb - Past Tense_____ the door even though it clearly said "pull." That was embarrassing, but I continued into the shop and _____Verb - Past Tense_____ towards the cash registers anyways. There were _____Number_____ people in front of me in line so I browsed through the _____Adjective_____ wall menus. It was hard choosing between the _____Food or Flavour ONE_____ tea and the _____Food or Flavour ONE_____ latte, but the _____Food or Flavour TWO_____ tea costed $_____Number_____ more, so I decided to get the _____Food or Flavour ONE_____ latte. I wanted to get a slice of _____Food or Flavour THREE_____ cake, too.

The _____Adjective_____ person in front of me finally finished ordering and casually went to pick up his order at the side. I moved up about _____Number_____ steps and was ready to place my order.

"_____Greeting_____, welcome to Bob's Coffee. What can I get you?" the _____Adjective_____ barista said. I was mesmerized. He was so _____Adjective_____ and his voice was _____Adjective_____ like _____Noun_____. His hair was dark _____Colour_____ and so were his _____Adjective_____ eyes. His name tag was pinned to his uniform and read, _____Bias_____.' I was so distracted I almost forgot to order!

"Uh, I'll have a... a... _____Food or Flavour TWO_____ latte... please," I said, a bit _____Adverb_____, "and a slice of _____Food or Flavour THREE_____ cake, too."

"Alright!" The cash register's buttons made a _____Sound_____ sound as _____Bias_____ pressed them with his _____Adjective_____ fingers. "That'll be $_____Number_____, please."

My hands were _____Adjective_____ as I _____Verb - Past Tense_____ him the cash. He smiled and _____Verb - Past Tense_____ the money. His _____Body Part - plural_____ brushed against mine! I was blushing _____Colour_____. I caught a glimpse of Wonwoo and he was blushing _____Colour_____, too. It was _____Adjective_____!

"Thanks," he said, _____Adverb_____. "Your order will be ready soon."

After about _____Number_____ minutes of waiting, which was a bit longer than usual, I got my _____Food or Flavour TWO_____ latte and cake.

I knew I didn't have a chance with _____Bias_____, so I just grabbed my food and sat at a table far, far away. I observed my drink as it was still too hot to drink. To my surprise, there was some _____Adjective_____ writing on the side of the cup. It said,

"Hey... I'm the barista, _____Bias_____. You seem like a really _____Adjective_____ person & _____Food or Flavour TWO_____ latte is my favourite! Wanna talk after my shift? :)"

Did I really just read that? And how was he able to write so much on a small cup? Nonetheless, I was so _____Adjective_____.

I took a small bite out of my _____Food or Flavour THREE_____ cake as I excitedly waited for _____Bias_____ to finish his shift. This was definitely my favourite coffee shop, ever.
