The wood

I stepped out into the darkness, leaving _____First Name of a Person_____ and _____First Name of a Person_____ behind at the party. I did not want to stay, I did not want to go. I was only _____Number_____ though and the party was in a _____Proper Noun_____, in the middle of some _____Adjective_____, _____Adjective_____ and (or so I was told) _____Adjective_____ wood.

'Apparently the woods were cursed (as if). Still... it might be safer to just go back.'

This is what _____Adjective_____ Alice thought as she stepped back, into the woods...

(Because as I'm sure you now imagine, she was facing the _____Proper Noun_____.)

_____Direction_____ she _____Verb - Past Tense_____, _____Direction_____, _____Direction_____, _____Direction_____, and she fell asleep from pure G-force.

"Alice?" a voice said, no, not a voice. It was him! He WAS real!

"Hatter!" she sat up, so fast she bumped _____Part of body - Plural_____ with the hare.

"Watch out!" a _____Adjective_____ voice called from on her lap, the door mouse was screaming at her!

"Where is he?" Alice said, _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ to her _____Part of Body_____, looking around _____Adverb_____.

"Right here." A voice said calmly, and there the Hatter stood, straight _____Part of Body_____, looking down at his _____Part of Body_____ and mumbling quietly to himself.

"Why am I back?" she asked, trying to be polite, but sounding rather ignorant instead.

"The _____Colour_____ queen," he whispered, "She's back"
