More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Walk Home

1. Goth School Subject _____
2. Dismal Adjective _____
3. Classic Goth Album _____
4. Color That Is Black _____
5. Color That Is Also Black _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Painfully Normal, Conformist, Derivative, Un-Goth Verb Ending In –Ed _____
8. Amount Of Time _____
9. Relative _____
10. Interjection _____
11. Body Part _____

The Walk Home

Hildegaard von Nightshade was walking home from _____goth school subject_____ school one day. She walked through campus with its _____dismal adjective_____ sidewalks and police call boxes. Hildegaard hated school. She put _____classic goth album_____ on to listen to on her headphones, and the music helped carry her away. She felt so peaceful. Her _____color that is black_____ dress was soft and warm against her skin, and loved the way her _____color that is also black_____ tights made her legs look.

Hildegaard was feeling good as she approached the parking lot, where a crowd of _____Adjective_____ middle-aged ladies and lanky boys stood. "Hey! Don't you know it's not Halloween yet?!" One boy _____painfully normal, conformist, derivative, un-Goth verb ending in ed_____.

Hildegaard wanted to cry for a _____amount of time_____. But instead she remembered the dismemberment spell her _____relative_____ had taught her. _____Interjection_____, she said, feeling herself grow strong.

And all her enemies were torn from limb to _____body part_____.

Hildegaard put her headphones on again and smiled. She felt so peaceful.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.