Body part

When I heard you were getting married I thought my (Body Part) would go out from under me. You are obviously in love and must feel like you are hearing choirs of (Noun) singing (Song title). A marriage can't last these days without plenty of (Verb - Base Form) and (Verb - Base Form) and maybe a trip to (Location) to play (Olympic Sport). So i thought I'd offer some (Adjective) advice.. . Marc don't ever (verb) without (Verb - Present ends in ING) with Chelsea.When you need to apologize for acting like a (Profession) just hold her (Body Part) and whisper "I love you much more then (Noun - Plural)." And Chelsea, make sure Marc still goes (Verb - Present ends in ING) so he doesn't get into a (Adjective) mood. Keep splurging on each other with lots of (Adjective) (Noun - Plural). If all else fails turn off the light when you (Verb - Base Form) and eat (food) in bed to keep the (adjective) romance alive. And never go to sleep until you (Adverb) (Noun) around (Noun) and say you're the (Noun) to my (Noun) (Cartoon Character)

Congratulations Chelsea and Marc, best wishes to you both
