Thanksgiving

For thanksgiving weekend the days flew from Spokane and the O'Maras drove from Devon to stay at Gram and Poppop's house. On Wednesday Uncle Steven drove over for dinner and he brought his girlfriend Patty. On Gram and Poppop, the Days, and the O'maras all went to Donna's house for thanksgiving dinner. Before dinner we went on a tour of their newly built dog obedience school. The dog obedience school was very up scale and had 27000 square feet. After that we went back for a delicious thanksgiving dinner. After dinner and desert we went back to Gram and Poppop's house except Uncle DanO who went back to Devon because he had to work the next day. The next two days wererelaxing. They skyped the California Mattans in a skype that involved 13 people (it went swimingly). They played frisbee and follow the leader in the park across the street. The kids also performed a skit about baseball and a skit about Harry Potter.
Onevening the Days flew back to Spokane and the O'Maras drove back to Devon. What a fun thanksgiving.
