The Snowball

I hate the snow, just the sight of it makes my _____Noun_____ curl and me want to curl up in a _____Adjective_____, _____Adjective_____ blanket. Why do I hate snow you might ask? Well it started back when I was in 3rd grade, it was the day that my whole grade was going on a field trip to a ski lodge. I loved the _____Adjective_____ weather back then so I wore a _____Noun_____ thin parka, little did I know, I should have piled on layers and layers of clothes. Other students wore layers and layers, numerous long sleeves and thick heavy _____Noun - Plural_____. After a mundane 30 minutes of lounging around in the lobby we went out to the back and they handed us _____Noun - Plural_____ and _____Noun - Plural_____. There was a back door and when they opened it the chilly air entered into the room. As we stepped out into the outdoors our _____Noun - Plural_____ sank into the 4-5 inch snow. The snow was _____Adjective_____ and _____Adjective_____, it was like we just entered a _____Noun_____ wonderland, the instructors allowed us around an hour before we started lessons on _____Noun_____ and _____Verb - Present Tense_____. We were told to not go near the hill, it was steep and covered in the beautiful snow. The kids scattered and snow started flying through the air, I was pummeled with snowballs that hit me in the chest, I decided to escape the madness of the snowball fight and found myself a clear field. I joined 2 students in making a snowman! _____Proper Noun_____ started rolling a ball for the base and the _____Proper Noun_____ was looking for _____Noun - Plural_____ and _____Noun - Plural_____. I marched through the _____Adjective_____ snow and suddenly my hat flew off the head. "Ill get it!"_____Adverb_____ shouted as she left her ball of snow. The ball of snow started to roll forward, forward toward me! I was looking in the other direction and it hit me _____Noun - Plural_____ first. Could get worse right? Well it did, I was standing in front of the hill, I was knocked down and I felt my self tumbling down the hill. I heard the screams of Jade and Chase but they were muffled by the snow. I got hit by _____Noun - Plural_____ and got _____Noun - Plural_____ in my hair. My whole body was shivering, my clothes were wet and I was dizzy... I didn't go to skiing or snowboarding lessons that day, no, I went to the hospital. The heater was on and I was bundled up in 4 blankets. That's why I hate snow, because of a snowball.
