Chris and Marie met online, through a _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ site. It should come as no surprise to family and friends that she _____Verb Past Tense_____ the conversation, but who could have predicted that he'd turn out to be even more _____Adjective_____ than her? They stayed on the telephone for _____Number_____ whole _____Noun Plural_____ that February evening. And, though he had already impressed her with his ready command of the _____Noun_____ _____Noun_____, she didn't agree to a coffee date for that coming weekend. He asked her again the following Saturday, but she already had plans with her coworker for a _____Adjective_____ _____Noun Plural_____ Valentines Day with Effie and Sadie. Third time was the charm, when she accepted his invitation to _____Noun_____ for February 20th. But did she ever feel silly when she realized that the restaurant she chose was one floor down from his _____Noun_____. Ever the gentleman, he insisted they _____Verb Base Form_____ dinner there anyway. And the rest is history!
