More stories at WordBlanks.com

Scandal Series Finale

1. Verb Base Form _____
2. Noun _____
3. Noun Plural _____
4. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
5. Location _____
6. Verb Base Form _____
7. Noun Plural _____
8. Food _____
9. Animal - Plural _____

Scandal Series Finale

What kind of ending should we expect for the woman who helped change the face of politics in Washington? In a twist of fate Papa Pope finally decided to help his daughter _____Verb Base Form_____ a _____Noun_____ one last time . It was there that he gave the monologue to end all monologues, effectively convincing them all to declare _____Noun Plural_____ a real thing and to throw Jake to the wolves as the face of it all.

With Jake in jail, dreaming about _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ in _____Location_____ with Olivia, that effectively ended the Olivia-Fitz-Ballard triangle for good, allowing Liv to finally _____Verb Base Form_____ the _____Noun Plural_____ with Fitz without anymore second-guessing. Of course, before she could officially do that, she also had to say farewell to her other great love affair, the Oval Office, and all that came with it.

The series ended with all of the characters _____Repeat Last Verb Present ends in ING_____ in _____Repeat Last Location_____ after all. Abby and Huck honored the great man they lost in David. Liv and Eli had dinners with actual laughter and a _____Food_____. Quinn and Charlie got to play house with their daughter, and Fitz and Olivia were able to claim the _____Animal - Plural_____ they always wanted.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.