More stories at WordBlanks.com

Hurricanes

1. Verb _____
2. Noun _____
3. Number _____
4. Period Of Time _____
5. Plural Noun _____
6. Location _____
7. Noun _____
8. Adjective _____
9. Noun _____
10. Number _____
11. Adjective _____

Hurricanes

Hurricanes _____Verb_____in a counterclockwise direction around an "eye." A tropical _____Noun_____becomes a hurricane when winds reach _____Number_____mph. There are on average six Atlantic hurricanes each _____Period of time_____; over a three-year period, approximately five _____Plural noun_____strike the United States coastline from Texas to _____Location_____. The Atlantic hurricane season begins June 1 and ends November 30. The East Pacific _____Noun_____season runs from May 15 through November 30, with peak activity occurring during July through September. In a _____Adjective_____Noun_____ the East Pacific would expect 15 or 16 tropical storms. _____Number_____of these would become hurricanes, of which four or five would be _____Adjective_____hurricanes.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.