Series of Strange Events, featuring BioScript Bettie

On a (Adjective) and (Adjective) April morning, BioScript Bettie woke up ready to conquer the day. She started her day as usual, making (Noun) for breakfast. After savoring the (Adjective) taste, she put on her favourite pair of (Noun) and headed out the door. While driving to work, she noticed a strange (Noun) on corner of (Noun) Street and (Adjective) Avenue. Although hard to ignore, she continued driving to work, parked her car and made her way inside the building. Upon arrival, she noticed one of her team members holding a(n) (Noun), claiming she found it on top of the windowsill. How odd, she thought, reflecting back to the bizarre sight she saw earlier that morning. The rest of her day went as usual, putting Patients First with a smile, but the thought of her sighting from earlier that morning made her (Adjective). While leaving work, she decided to (Verb Base Form) past that intersection to see if it was there. To her surprise, it was gone but a(n) (Adjective) (Noun) was there instead. What an interesting day for BioScript Bettie, I wonder what tomorrow will bring, she thought.
