Deer Huntin'

This mornin'; I went on a huntin'; trip with my two buddies, First name and First name. We got up at the crack of Noun and made Number Animal sandwiches to bring with us. We also packed my favorite kind of beer, Noun. We drove in my Adjective truck, and on the way over we ran over a Noun. When we done arrived in the woods I seen that the deer were hidin'; from us so used our special Adjective guns to Verb them. One deer fell over and started to Verb on the ground. Well, it's mama didn't like that. She ran to Second name used in a matter of Number seconds, and began to Verb his Body part out. He screamed out Exclamation; I prayed to the Lord Name to Verb him but she kept on Verb. Pretty darn soon another deer, this one Adjective and Adjective picked up my gun in it's mouth and Verb me through the Body part. The last thing I done seen before the world turned Color was them deer carrying off First name used possessive form body.
