A day in the life of a driver

There is a perfectly (Event) reason I was late to the (Location) this morning. Traffic was (Part of Body). I swear to (Food Food Food) I left the house early enough to get there on time. However, as soon as I turned onto (Animal) street to arrive at the (Noun) there was a line of (Animal) cars ahead of me and I could not park in a spot. I sat waiting for (Number) of minutes. Finally, cars started leaving, are we not priority over customers? I was told we were! Since I did not (Verb Base Form) can I still get paid for my wait? I raced here as fast as (Animal) as I could, so I should be paid for all my time.
