More stories at WordBlanks.com

Toast to the Bride

1. Noun _____
2. Verb Ending In Ing _____
3. Location _____
4. Noun _____
5. Verb _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Noun _____

Toast to the Bride

First of all, I want to say thank you so, so, so much for asking me to share in this special day. I can't tell you how much it means to me. You look beautiful Kathy!

I remember when we first met, years ago. We were in grade one, it was the first day of grade one actually. I was crying because I dropped my _____Noun_____all over the floor. You helped me clean it up and then you let me have your pudding. You've always been that kind of person, so giving and kind! We've been through all sorts of fun together... all those hours of _____Verb ending in ing_____lessons at the Warehouse, our girls'; trip to _____Location_____York, the time you punched that guy in the face for grabbing my _____Noun_____. Good times! I'm so lucky to have you as a friend!

When you first told me about Bill, I have to admit I had my doubts. Knocking a whole shelf of pudding mix on you at Superstore didn't seem like a very auspicious beginning! But now that I know Bill I can see what you love about him. I've never seen you happier!

I hope that for the rest of your lives you continue to make each other _____Verb_____every day. I just know that you'll create many, many _____Adjective_____Noun_____together! Kathy, I'm so glad that you've found your someone special. I love you!

To

Kathy!

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.