worst road trip ever

years ago me and my friends, First name First name were driving to Location for a Event. As we were driving we Adverb hit a Animal. It dented our Adjective mini-van that we had borrowed from our friend. We were very Past tense verb but not hurt at all. The problem was we had large amount of Noun and we needed to hide it before the cops arrived on the scene.

He offered us a ride to the chapel and we hopped into the cruiser.

Turns out he was a time-cop and took us through time to time jail because he knew we had hid the Noun inside of the _____Same animal's_____Body part_____.

I wish he would have just come back in time before we hit the same animal so I didn't have to put my hand in there.
