Undemocratic Senate Practices

November _____Day of month_____ 2010

_____Canadian politician name_____

What your government instigated this week in the Senate around the Climate Change Accountability Act was _____Adjective_____and _____Adjective_____. Senate did not even have a chance to debate the bill and a surprise vote was called. It is virtually unprecedented to hold a vote at that stage of considering legislation and the Liberal sponsor did not even know this was going to happen. This is _____Adverb_____undemocratic, for the Senate to vote against the will of the House of Commons. I know it is legal, but it virtually never happens and it makes the Canadian model of democracy look like a _____Noun_____. More than 15 Liberals, 2 PC and 1 independent were absent from the Senate yesterday. This was clearly a move by your government to kill this Bill without any debate. _____Adjective_____.

I am embarrassed to be _____Proper noun_____and _____Adjective_____infuriated that this government is acting with such disrespect to the Canadian public. Your _____Noun_____and reputation is on the line, you are forever contributing to changing Canada for the worst. Above all, Canada should be democratic and this was anything but democratic .

I will not be supporting your government in the next election and am now inspired to _____Verb_____against your government to my friends, family and neighbours.

Sincerely,

_____Your name_____
