"Scary" Story

I walked up to that scary Adjective house to find the frisbee we had tossed over the Noun. My friends said that it was fine, but I wasn't sure. I saw a Adjective Noun run through the yard and the Plural noun creaked when I Past tense verb on them. As I knocked on the door, I got even more frightened because there were Plural noun everywhere. It opened by itself, so I Past tense verb in. It seemed like one of those Adjective movies. I shouted, 'Is anyone here? I need to find my frisbee.'

The door then Past tense verb loudly. I tried to open it, but I couldn't. It was too Adjective to see anything, so I just Past tense verb there for a Amount of time and waited for something to happen. A Noun came from around the Noun and floated toward me. I backed away and tripped over a Noun. The Noun handed me my frisbee and opened the Noun. It didn't make sense to me, but I was scared so I grabbed it and ran to my Plural noun. I never looked back as we Past tense verb away.
