A Letter From the Trenches

Dear Mother,

Do you _____^{Noun} me having those postals sent from _____^{Noun} _____^{Noun} after I left? That same fellow who did me that favor is driving an ambulance over here. Two nights ago, we passed an outfit on the _____^{Noun} which has about _____^{Noun} fellows in it, but it was so dark I couldn't see any of them. _____^{Noun} _____^{Noun} was one of them. Helen is certainly good in writing for I haven't had time to write to her.

In every letter you send, put a blank envelope and a sheet of paper. It is very hard to _____^{Noun} where I am now. Shaved and washed in a half cup of water this morning and haven't had a bath in two weeks, but don't even feel _____^{Noun} so I guess everything is _____^{Noun}. The only German's I see are prisoners and I _____^{Noun} the rest of them will be as soon as they get a chance to give _____^{Noun} up. The American's _____^{Noun} a German bridge that took 14 years to build in seven shots the other day, and every time the German's start to throw iron, the Americans throw twice as much back, so the _____^{Noun} for them is just not to throw any. Well, Mother, I must stop for I have to go right to _____^{Noun}_____so give my love to everybody and save lots of it for Papa and yourself. Tell Papa to write me a _____^{Noun}_____sometime, I miss those letters he used to send to Dix.

Your loving son, Ralph
