I don't like to travel!!!!

Dear First name

Oh my God! My mom woke me up at Number o'clock in the morning! So I was so tired, but I had to pack up my bags to leave for Location. My mom said it would take Number days to get there, but I didn't even care. So I didn't even know what to pack besides a Article of clothing. My sister is running around the house trying to find her Article of clothing. I am going to bring my Animal on vacation with us! I can't beleive my mom is going to let me. Well I've got to go!
