A Strange Message

One day, I was on the computer and went on Website. I logged on with my very Adjective password and Adjective username. My username was Username. I'm such a Noun aren't I!?!?! I checked my messages. I had Number of them. Number of them was from Username who said that i was a Noun How dare she? I am obviously Adjective ending in er than her! I wrote back to her Verb ending in ing that what she said made me very Adjective and that she is now my Noun. Later, we settled our Plural noun and became very Adjective Plural noun I am so Adjective that we Past tense verb.
