

On the Subject of Doctors

1. Present Tense Verb
2. Noun
3. Mr. Or Ms.
4. Noun
5. Noun
6. Sport Other Than Golf
7. Something Exchanged (Plural)
8. Body Part
9. A Street Drug
10. Present Tense Verb
11. Adjective

On the Subject of Doctors

I like to see doctors cough.

What kind of human being would Present tense verb all your Noun just when you're down?

I'm not saying they enjoy this:

"Sorry, Mr. or ms. Noun that's it, no hope! You might as well hand over your Noun; Hell no, they'd rather be playing Sport other than golf and swapping Something exchanged (plural) about our Body part.

Some of them smoke A street drug and are alcoholics, and their moral turpitude is famous: who gets to see most sex organs in the world? Not poets. With the hours they keep they Present tense verb drugs more than anyone.

Germ city, there's no hope looking down those fire-engine throats.

They're bound to get sick themselves sometime; and I happen to be there myself in a high fever

taking my _____Adjective_____medicine seriously with the doctors, who are dying.