

The animals in that country

1. Verb Ending In Ing
2. Preposition
3. Preposition
4. Pronoun
5. Adjective

The animals in that country

In that country the animals have the faces of people:

the ceremonial

cats Verb ending in ing the streets the fox run politely Preposition earth, the huntsmen standing around him, fixed

Preposition their tapestry of manners the bull, embroidered with blood and given an elegant death, trumpets, his name stamped on him, heraldic brand because

(when Pronoun rolled on the sand, sword in his heart, the teeth in his Adjective mouth were human) he is really a man

even the wolves, holding resonant conversations in their forests thickened with legend.

In this country the animals have the faces of animals.

Their eyes

flash once in car headlights and are gone.

Their deaths are not elegant.

They have the faces of no-one.

