My favorite type of Cake

My favorite type of cake is Made up word . If you've never Verb it then you're missing out on something. The first cake like that was baked by a Noun named Proper noun . Okay enough about the baker and more about the cake. I shall describe what it feels like to Verb the most Adjective cake in the world. The first day I Past tense verb it Possessive noun Body part Past tense verb . Not only did that happen but I was Adjective enough to invite all the Plural noun to come around and have some. But for some reason while they Compound verb they just got up and left Adverb . Don't you think Pronoun were rude. I don't understand what happened, I mean it contained Adjective ingredients such as Food plural and Food plural . Doesn't that sound Adjective ?
