FRAMING ACTIVITY, Word Libs style!

Hi! My name is _____Your name_____and I am the _____Chapter leadership position_____of the _____Chapter/region name_____.

I am really _____Adjective_____about the service work we will perform today at the _____Proper noun place service is_____ occurring_____. Thanks for joining us! Helping others is part of our responsibility as Jews to repair the world, known in Hebrew as tikkun olam. I think taking part in really _____Adjective_____service projects together is important because _____List reasons service is important to you as connected to your jewish identity and as a universal value_____. We can use our energy and enthusiasm to make the world a better place. Today we will be painting, eating, and cheering to help lift the spirits of the elderly in our community.

Iâ??d like to now introduce Betty, the Executive Director at the Menorah House to tell us about the activity we will do today, why this work is needed, and how our actions will make an impact. Welcome, Betty.

AFTER THE OUTSIDE SPEAKER HAS CONCLUDEDâ?!

Thank you, Betty. Does anyone have any questions? I hope you have a better understanding of your role today and why we are here to perform this mitzvah together. We will be here until 4:30pm. Afterwards, we will meet up at Moe's to talk about our experiences here today. Thanks again for your participation!
