Family Vacation

It was finally time for our _____Adjective_____family vacation. We were so excited that this year we were going to be spending an entire week in Alabama. The day we were scheduled to leave we woke up early and all piled into the car. _____Family member_____and _____Family member_____were the first to start fighting over something. We all just rolled our eyes and ignored them. Along our way we saw the most exiting thing. We had to stop the car, _____Verb_____out and take a _____Number_____pictures of it before we could get on the road again. We had been on the road for _____Number_____hours and besides the driver were all just about to doze of when _____Family member_____suddenly sat up and shouted that she forgot her hairbrush. She was very upset about that so we decided to stop at a suermarket and get her another one. We had to walk up and down the aisles until we finally found what she was looking for. As we were about to walk out of the store we _____Verb_____into _____Celebrity_____. So of course _____Family member_____and his loud mouth had to shout "let sleeping dogs lie!". We all _____Adverb_____ran to the car and drove off. We were on the road for another _____Number_____hours and were getting bored when _____Family member_____saw a sign on the road for a zoo. So we decided to stop and stretch our legs. We were walking back to the car when all of the sudden a lion started chasing us. _____Family member_____ decided to grab a bat and chase it off. After another couple of hours we had finally arrived to Alabama and couldn't wait to get out of the car and run into the house. Even though the trip was long and tiring we couldnt wait to see what kind of adventures this week would bring.
