sing a poem

I once was a Animal

no one did this for you

he gave you his Animal and its monkey poo

I'm now a little Animal

I learned how to fly

I might become a Animal

And I will never die

I'm now a Animal

with sharp big teeth

I might become a Animal who likes eating beef

I'm now a Animal

who likes dog bones

I'm finally a human

who can be trusted with phones.
