Friends

Friends was anTV show centered around the idea of watching a group ofPlural noun who are supposedly friends. Nobody was captivated by this show except for 16-year-old ar there was truly a feeling in everyheart when it finished.
Its target audience was but it soon spread to the rest of the population like a viral Noun does in our days. In other words, you can liken it to the spread of Noun flu.
This American sitcom became astoundingly popular despite a flimsy pretense and a seeming lack of any
