Alice in Wonderland

I just entered Wonderland. Want me to tell you the _____<sup>Noun</sup>? Okay, long story short: I fell down the hole and _____<sup>Past tense verb</sup> through the ceiling. What a morning. Then when I found a way out, I was too _____<sup>Adjective</sup> to go through the door. Nice. So I drank the drink that said _____<sup>Present tense verb</sup> "Me". I got small enough to get through, but I left the key on the _____<sup>Noun</sup>. And I couldn't reach it. Sweet. So I ate the cake that said _____<sup>Present tense verb</sup> "Me". So I got _____<sup>Adjective</sup> again, got the key, and drank some more so I could fit. I unlocked the door, and as soon as I got through, I was told I wasn't the right Alice. Now I'm _____<sup>Verb ending in ing</sup> a caterpillar who's name sounds somewhat like a Greek _____<sup>Noun</sup>. I have a feeling this is going to be a _____<sup>Adjective</sup> day.
