More stories at WordBlanks.com

Haunted House

1. Adjective _____
2. Noun _____
3. Pronoun _____
4. Noun _____
5. Proper Noun _____
6. Adverb _____
7. Adjective _____
8. Past Tense Verb _____
9. Adverb _____
10. Pronoun _____
11. Verb _____

Haunted House

It was an _____Adjective_____Friday night. Tommy and his friend's were all wandering the streets when a tall, bulky _____Noun_____started to follow the kids, so _____Pronoun_____ran as fast as their legs could let them until he was out of their sight. The now sweating boys came upon a dark and mysterious _____Noun_____. Billy, the shortest of them all and nerdy looking, told them that they should go home, but they didn't. Instead Jake and _____Proper noun_____dared Tommy to go up to the house. "But it's haunted"; groaned Tommy. Tommy tried to turn around, but the two boys _____Adverb_____dragged him him up to the _____Adjective_____steps. Tommy reach out a shaking hand and _____Past tense verb_____on the door. It _____Adverb_____flung open, but no one was at the door. He slowly stepped inside and the door slammed shut behind him. Now shaking from head to toe Tommy walked into the house. Four hours later and _____Pronoun_____friends were outside waiting for him to return, but he never did. They began to worry and their fear increased as they heard a scream from inside the house. The three boys _____Verb_____away screaming and as for Tommy he was never seen again.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.