

The Story of Cipactli

1. Noun
2. Noun
3. Adjective
4. Verb Ending In Ing
5. Name Of A Person
6. Plural Noun
7. Noun
8. Plural Noun
9. Adjective
10. Verb
11. Noun
12. Plural Noun
13. Adjective
14. Noun

The Story of Cipactli

Our ancestors tell us that once they were born, the four Tezcatlipocas existed for six hundred years. It was only after this period that they began their task of The Creation: They created water, the god Tlaloc and his goddess, who together embodied the essence of water. Then the Tezcatlipocas created Cipactli.

Cipactli is a dragon-serpent that floats in the _____ Noun _____ of _____ Noun _____. Beyond Cipactli's monster body nothing exists. Our _____ Adjective _____ and ever _____ Verb ending in ing _____ universe and all the other universes beyond are contained within Cipactli.

In Cipactli's great body the gods gave _____ Name of a person _____ to our world. Thirteen _____ Plural noun _____ exist in Cipactli's head, the _____ Noun _____ is in the middle, and nine _____ Plural noun _____ go down the length of Cipactli's tail. Cipactli is so _____ Adjective _____ that it is almost impossible to _____ Verb _____. Our entire existence fits inside. The earth is a great, flat _____ Noun _____ located in the middle of Cipactli's body and is surrounded by the Celestial _____ Plural noun _____ making our world _____ Adjective _____: that which is surrounded by _____ Noun _____.

